“ *Junior, Chris, Cindy, y especialmente Norma
Me quede bien sorprendida cuando me entere de esa noticia fulminante. no saben ustedes el dolor que senti especialmente por su mama que es o era inseparable de corchito como carinosamente le decia tui koky. ustedes saben que no soy mucho de hablar pero si les doy mis condolencias. guardo mucho recuerdos gratos.... que descanse en paz de martha y tio koki.*

*Junior, Chris, Cindy, and especially Norma
It is well surprised when I found out that withering news. You guys do not know the pain I felt especially for your mom that is or was inseparable from "Corchito" as your Tio koky would call him with love. You know I'm not much of talking, but I give my condolences. I keep fond memories with him.... may he rest in peace... martha and koki.*

“ Uncle Mike. .what can I say but a man with a spirit! I thank you for never judging me for who I am. That support that never was spoken but was always there and it will never go unforgotten. You and TITI Norma have always been and will continue in spirit to be a family that I will always admire. May the strength that your children share and hold be the strength that hold them together. With love always too amd family. Will be missed and remembered. You are now in company of those who are not here but in spirit shall and for ever remain .

“ It has only been very recently that I had the pleasure of meeting Michael Loubriel. He had come to my home to pick up a bed for his grandson. We talked about grandchildren while they loaded the truck. I could hear the love in his voice talking about his grandchildren and his children. I wish I had the honor of meeting him sooner, what a wonderful soul that has left us here, but what an Angel has been gained by Heaven. My thoughts and prayers are with you. You know where I am if you need anything.. All my love, RuthAnn

“ I remember as a little girl my dad would love for me to comb his hair. It made him relaxed and fall asleep. One day I decided to put all my colorful over the top barrettes in his hair. The doorbell rang suddenly he jumped up and opened the door and his friends were at the door laughing because he forgot all the barrettes in hair. Let's say he was somewhat mortified. Love you DADDY

Cindy, as parents, those are the memories we cherish the most of our children. I am certain your father told that story many times over the years and had a good laugh about it. How blessed you are to have such a memory with him. You are in my prayers and always in my heart. oxoxox

All my love
