“ I got the pleasure of meeting Michelle and John in Okinawa Japan, it was instant family. We spent holidays together, we got to be together while both of our husbands were deployed and got to be key spouses for the security forces squadron together. Our boys were best buds, my daughter loved carrying Mikalah around and we always found fun things to do together. We recently talked about getting together after this COVID thing cleared up, till we meet again Michelle. Fly high and know you are dearly missed!!!

“ My husband and I became close friends with John and Michelle while stationed at Warner Robins AFB...and lived across the street for a period of time. Many incredible memories. Pregnant at the same time, baby showers, attempting to eat out at restaurants with babies and toddlers, squadron functions, dogs tearing up the houses, etc. What a precious blessing to have you all in our life. We love you all soooooo very much❤️❤️❤️

“ The last weekend Michelle was able to visit home is one that I will always cherish. We celebrated birthdays, watched my sister hana perform, laughed together, talked together. Aunt Michelle always had something funny to say, and filled empty space in the room quickly with words worth hearing. I was so lucky to be taken in by the family, and I couldnt of asked my mom to of married a better person to become my dad, who in turn gave me the chance to love and know Michelle. The first weekend she got to meet Juniper, my daughter, I remember sitting in Sonnys and looking back nervously as she held her (new mom jitters) and she would just look at me and say taylor, i got this. shes alive. ive raised 2 of my own. eat your food! Shell be very missed and loved always.

“ This saddens my heart so much! We grew up together on Mike Street and were the best of friends. She was always so full of life funny and kind! We hadn't seen each other in years she found me a year or so ago on Facebook, I was so glad she did! Your family will be in my thoughts and prayers 🙏❤️😭

“ I will never forget the times I had with Michelle. Sleep overs with us calling the radio station and requesting songs and talking to the DJ. We would laugh until the sun came up and annoyed her older brother. She was so amazing. so kind and a great friend. Her heart was so big and her smile was even bigger. She also had the thickest hair of anyone I ever known and admired her for that. Michelle was one of a kind and I will never ever forget her. I love you Michelle and even when you moved we still kept in touch. You are a true friend. 💜

“ Mrs.Michelle was like a second mom too me, she had the kindest heart and always opened her home too me as well as friends and family. She was an amazing mother to mikalah and hayden and i am very proud of what she did for them throughout her life. I loved her not only as a second mom but one of my bestfriends. I got to meet her when i was around 10 . At that point i got too meet her wonderful daughter as well who eventually became my bestfriend. We will always share a special bond and i will forever thank you for treating me like your own. You will always have a special place in my heart. I am so so proud of you . We got to spend a lot of memories together as the years went on and me and mikalah now growing as sophomores in high school. you will forever be missed . I love you Mrs.Michelle. Thank you for always taking the time to braid my hair and helping me with homework. Till next time ❤️

“ Last year I got to spend a week in San Antonio. Michelle picked me up at the airport & we went & grabbed the family then went straight to SeaWorld for the day. I had such a fun filled week! Another night we went to the giant pizza place. Another night Michelle introduced me & my coworkers to Papasitos mexican. Some of my coworkers have gone to Papasitos in ATL since then, because Michelle was right, it was so good! Prime rib fajitas! On my last day, Michelle & the kids strolled the Riverwalk. Then she took me back to the airport. She was such a gracious host! I’m sure she didn’t feel the greatest, but she never let on! Me and Dwain loved Michelle very much. We will forever miss her!
