

Michelle Joanna Sanson

April 29, 1985 - March 1, 2025

It is with profound sadness and heavy hearts that we announce the unexpected passing of Michelle Joanna Sanson, beloved mother, daughter, sister, and friend, who left this world far too soon on March 1, 2025, at the age of 39, due to a tragic car accident. Though her time on Earth was brief, Michelle's life was filled with purpose, love, faith, and compassion—a legacy that will never be forgotten.

Michelle was born on April 29, 1985, in Mount Kisco, New York, to her loving parents, Christina Sanson and Miguel Sanson. She spent her early years in Mount Kisco, where she was known for her bright smile, kind heart, and quiet strength. Later in life, she relocated to Orlando, Florida, where she would build a life centered around faith, family, and service to others.

A devoted mother, Michelle's greatest joy and proudest achievement in life was her two children, Ariana Randolph and Brandon Randolph. She poured her heart and soul into raising them with love, wisdom, and unwavering faith. Her children were not just her priority—they were her purpose. She taught them the value of kindness, perseverance, and walking closely with God, even in life's most uncertain moments.

Michelle answered a deep calling to serve others by becoming a registered nurse. She worked at AdventHealth, where her patients and colleagues alike knew her for her gentle spirit, her compassionate care, and her steady hands during critical moments. Michelle was not only skilled in her profession, but she treated each person with dignity and grace. Her coworkers remember her as dependable, selfless, and inspiring—someone who showed up not just to work, but to make a difference.

Beyond her profession, Michelle was a woman of profound faith. She believed in Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior and was never ashamed to speak about the hope and peace she found in Him. Her life was marked by quiet devotion and a courageous spirit. No matter the challenge, she stood strong, trusting that God was always with her. She often reminded those around her that God's love never fails.

Michelle's sudden departure has left a deep void in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. She will be remembered for her strength, her compassion, her unshakable faith, and the way she loved without limits. Her memory will continue to live on through her children, her family, and the many lives she touched throughout her journey.

Though we mourn her loss, we take comfort in knowing that Michelle is now at peace in the arms of the Father. We believe with certainty that she is in heaven, reunited with loved ones who have gone before her, and watching over us with that same gentle and courageous heart we cherished here on Earth.

Michelle is survived by her children, Ariana and Brandon Randolph; her parents, Christina and Miguel Sanson; and a host of extended family members, friends, coworkers, and all who were blessed to know her.

A memorial service to honor Michelle's life will be announced in the coming days. The family welcomes all who wish to join in remembering her and celebrating the remarkable woman she was.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to a charity supporting single mothers, aspiring nurses, or a faith-based organization in her honor—causes close to Michelle's heart.

Though her light on Earth has dimmed, Michelle Joanna Sanson's legacy will continue to shine brightly in the lives she touched, and the love she left behind.
