“ Janice daush - niece posted a condolence She came to live with us when I was 8 years old from her home in Georgia right after graduation. She came to help my mother who was expecting her 4th child. She became my protector and defender when I needed someone in what people call today bullying. She would confront the bullyer and the parents like a mother lion with her little ones. I have looked up to her all my life and will really miss her. My love and prayers go out to all my cousins on the loss of your wonderful mother.
