

Mrs. Nancy Jane Lackner

January 20, 1938 - May 8, 2026

Nancy Jane Pearce Lackner, born on January 20, 1938 was called home to our Loving Lord on May 8, 2026. Nancy resided in the Lynwood section of Bele Vernon, PA with her loving husband of almost 70 years. A graduate of Rostraver High School in 1955.

She and her husband moved their family to Bayonne, NJ in 1961 and resided there until their move to Old Bridge, NJ in 1969. Nancy worked at Blonder & Tounge Labs in Old Bridge until moving to East Brunswick, NJ where she took on a position in Data Security for Fidelity Bank. After retirement she and her husband moved back to Belle Vernon. She loved reading and gardening. A former member of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Old Bridge where she taught Sunday school for many years and now a member of Lynwood Lutheran Church.

Surviving are her husband, Joseph Lackner, two daughters, Sheryl Kotora of Monroe, NJ and Darla Talbot and her husband John of South River, NJ.

Nancy had five grandsons, Joseph Kotora, Jr and his wife Amber of Eatontown, Jeffrey Kotora and his wife Melissa of Bordentown, NJ, Michael Dougherty and his wife Lara of Woodbury, NJ, Robert Dougherty and his wife Christine of Belmar, and Steven Lackner and his wife Callie of South River, NJ. Great grand children, Sarah and Madeline Kotora, Jesse, Jackson and Layla Kotora, Lucy and Grant Dougherty Bradley and Hailey Dougherty and Sydney Lackner and two step- great grand children, Taylor and Christian Smerina. Also surviving is her sister Linda Glosser of Monessen, PA.

She is predeceased by her parents George and Louise Pearce, five brothers one sister and her loving son, Joseph Lackner.

Nancy will be cremated and the family will announce when and where a memorial service will be held. Because of her love for children, the family requests that anyone wishing to honor her memory can send donation to St. Jude's in her name.