

Nancy Madden

November 5, 1938 - December 3, 2021

Nancy Madden, 83, was healed in body, mind and spirit in the early morning hours on Friday, December 3rd, 2021. She was surrounded by her family and covered in prayer by her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren and dear friends as she left this earthly home to live eternally with our Lord and Savior.

Nancy was born on November 5, 1938 in Marion, Ohio, the daughter of Carl Garrison Uncapher and Lula Margerite Garfield.

She was a 31-year resident of Winter Springs, Florida. She loved the sunshine, warmth and sea breeze (as well as an occasional slot machine). Nancy held many jobs throughout her life, but her most treasured role was mother and grandmother. Although she grew up as an only child, her family continued to grow and she never missed a moment to share with strangers that she was the proud "Grammy" to 5 Grandchildren and 14 Great Grandchildren.

Her fearless tenacity helped her face each hurdle with grace and grit. She had a unique ability to stay strong and calm, even amidst the most difficult storms. She taught her family to love, laugh, and live with purpose. Nancy loved her music also, and could be heard singing along with her favorite songs, which were mostly gospel. Nancy was the type of person that you could go to regardless of the situation and she was going to love you well. Even in the end, her faith grew stronger as she was prepared to meet Jesus face-to-face. Nancy's conviction has brought peace to her family as they anxiously await to be reunited again.

She is survived by Robin Madden Yetto and Joseph Michael Yetto, Sr., daughter and son in-law of Weatherford TX; James Richard Madden and Maureen Dolan Madden, son and daughter in-law of Winter Springs, FL; Jennifer Marie Cerce and Donny Joseph Cerce, granddaughter and grandson in-law, Sorrento, FL, Caitlin Marie Cerce, great granddaughter, Sorrento, FL, Elizabeth Paige Cerce, great granddaughter, Sorrento, FL, Shelby Sky Cerce, great granddaughter, Sorrento, FL; Sirena Ann Madden and Christopher Brad Jones, granddaughter and grandson in-law, Winter Springs, FL; Joey Jordan Lyon, great granddaughter, Springs, FL; Brooklyn Joseph Jones, great grandson, Springs, FL; Lori Yetto Saunders, granddaughter, Aledo, TX; Kevin Lee Saunders, grandson in-law, Aledo TX; Grady James Saunders, great grandson, Aledo TX; Georgia Elizabeth Saunders, great granddaughter, Aledo, TX; Gretchen Lee Saunders, great granddaughter, Aledo TX; Garrison Loesch Saunders, great grandson, Aledo, TX; Joseph Michael Yetto Jr., grandson, Weatherford, TX; Tatyana Yetto, granddaughter in-law, Weatherford, TX; Joseph Michael Yetto, III, great grandson, Weatherford, TX; Miloslava Margharita Yetto, great granddaughter, Weatherford, TX; Antonina Sophia Yetto, great granddaughter, Weatherford, TX; Michael James Yetto, grandson, Cresson, Weatherford, TX; Mary Yetto, granddaughter in-law, Cresson, TX; Mason James Yetto, great grandson, Cresson, TX; Madden Grace Yetto, great granddaughter, Cresson, TX.

“ It seems like I’ve known Nancy, forever. Actually, just since my brother-in-law and Robin started dating and got married. I can say that I’ve been with Nancy literally, through thick and thin. You see, we began our “weight watchers “ journey together (1998), back when we were both spring chickens. She always has been and will continue to be an inspiration, to me. Missing you💕💕

“ Aunt Nance,

This has been a painful tribute to write. For me, it is the final passing of the Greatest Generation in our family. You, Uncle Honey, Mom, Dad, and Gram (Flo) were all such vibrant, loving, generous and hilarious leaders of our 2 families. For me, it is emotional saying goodbye, but I am also comforted, by you being reunited with the Love of Your Life, Uncle Honey. It has been a long 8 yrs and you both deserve to be back together. I am also comforted with you and Mom being back together as well. Mom loved you so much. You were like sisters. I am sure you have already made your 1st batch of beans up there for my Dad. I am sure when you entered the pearly gates, the 1st thing out of his mouth was "Nance, did you bring your beans!!!"

:-) My heart truly smiles when I think of how full the last week in heaven must have been for you being reunited with so many people who loved and missed you.

I will miss your smile that was always wrapped around your beautiful face. Even when you were going through so much the last few months, your smile never faded. I will cherish our last get-together about a month ago, on your outside patio. I am so glad that I was able to come back to Orlando to visit you. You were always my Favorite Aunt!! You and Uncle Honey have always meant the world to our family. I will miss you and look forward to seeing you all again. Enjoy being back together with everyone, Aunt Nance. Rest In Peace. Love You.

“ Nancy, you will be so dearly missed. For 30 years, you've been our dear friend and confidant. Always ready to listen and offer advice and discuss the craziness going on in the world, but always with a positive attitude that things would be okay if we hung in there. You welcomed us into your family and we're so grateful for that. You dealt with this illness with dignity and grace and a smile to make us feel better. We have so many good memories - you will forever be in our hearts. Rest in peace Nancy. With love, Keith & Fae

“ I had the great fortune of moving next door to Nancy in 2005. God really wanted her in my life- we first looked at the home on one side of her but it was not the one for me. Months later, the home on the other side went up for sale and we purchased it. Nancy has been such a positive and loving neighbor, friend, mentor and mother figure to me. She brought so much joy to those who knew her and had a wonderful sense of humor and always had great advice too! Nancy had a great love of her family and always loved to tell you about her children, grandchildren and great- grands. She will leave a deep hole in the hearts of many. I'm so blessed to have had her in my life and treasure our friendship- till we meet again dear friend.
