“ john franco - friend posted a condolence I'm sorry I wasn't there mom. If it wasn't for your wisdom and guidance as I grew up. I would not be the adult I grew into. You touched my heart and enriched the minds of countless children, we are all better off knowing you. Sleep well you more than earned your rest. Say hi to my mom and dad when you see them.

“ Jamie Green - Former Student posted a condolence Mrs. Pellegrino is to this day is the most inspiring woman i have ever met. She taught our class things i still remember 2/3 years later and that's a lot for a teenager! She will always hold a place in my memory as the only teacher to be more than just a teacher, but also a friend. A friend who dressed up as Spongebob just to see her students smile.

“ Aubrey Premer - Former Student posted a condolence I was devastated when i heard Ms.Pellegrino passed. I was actually in Biology! She was the best Science teacher i ever had. Her class is the only one that i remembered anything from. After she retired, everytime anyone saw her in the hallway or she came on a field trip with us, every one was so happy and she just brought a smile to everyone's face. She was willing to dress up in a Spongebob costume for us! She will never be forgotten, by me or anyone who had the pleasure to meet her.

“ Rose Mary Winslow - Co Worker posted a condolence I worked with Nancy at Pinellas Park Middle School for many years. She was always so active and vital in the whole school operation, and was loved by both students and staff. She was a hard worker with a heart as big as all outdoors. When she moved on to Thurgood Marshall she carried her light with her, and was deeply missed at PPMS. She reached out and had an impact on so very many lives, and will be sorely missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to Nancy's family, and their loss. However, in my mind, and in my heart Nancy will always be present.
