September 1, 1949 - November 2, 2014

Nancy Ann Sudbury, 65, of Longwood, Fla., passed away peacefully on Nov. 2, 2014. Nancy was born Sept 1, 1949, in Pawtucket, Rhode Island to Delmore and Emily Swanson. She was raised by her grandparents Walter and Helen Swanson as well as her aunt Gertrude Swanson.

She attended Lake Wales High School and Orange Memorial School of Nursing. She was a nurse by profession and by nature. She dedicated her life to caring for those in need while touching and healing many lives.

Her greatest joy and achievement were her children, Amanda and Rob. Being a mother was where she found purpose in life. She was a dedicated mother who put her children before herself in every way.

She enjoyed a great many interests including reading, writing, quilting and crafting to name a few. She loved animals, especially dogs.

Her favorite place to be was Anna Maria Island near Sarasota, Fla. She brought her children there every year throughout their childhood and she always said it was her place of peace.

“ Nancy was a great person. Always positive, compassionate, and caring. Always listening to your concerns and opinions. She had great inside into people which is what made her an excellent nurse. It was my honor, privilege, and blessing to have had the opportunity to be part of her life and consider her a great friend. I will always miss your humor, your counsel, and friendship.

“ Nancy was a loving, caring and compassionate woman. The few times I met her she was always nice to me. She did a great job raising two wonderful children. I would just like to thank you Nancy for giving me a friend for life. Your son Rob has been my friend for about 20 years. In your time of need he was right by your side until the end. Rob showed his true love for you and I hope you are looking down with Pride and Honor!!
I envy Rob I don't know how he did it I am truly amazed at the man he has become! He is a better man than I. Just to let you Nancy that I will help look after him and Amanda the best I can. I would be honored to call them my brother and sister.
I will be there for my friend until the end! God Bless You -Resting Peacefully
Love Kenny

“ So very sorry to hear of Nancy's passing. We worked together for several years at Winter Park Home Healthcare and also Gentiva Health Services. Nancy was a very dedicated nurse who went above and beyond for her patients. We all watched her children grow and knew how much she loved them. May God bless her family now and give them comfort with the wonderful memories they share of Nancy.

“ I went to high school and nursing school with Nancy. She was a great friend, nurse and patient advocate. She will be missed not only by friends and family, but by the patients who she cared about most. My prayers are with her family at this time. She will never be forgotten. She has her halo now in heaven, no more wprries. Cinda Rhodes
