Spirituality has always been an important part of Nell's life, and she said, "she gained a lot of spirituality from her mother Mabel Huddleston and gained even more from the Catholic Church". Nell was born in Funchal Madeira, an Island of Portugal, and spent the first 15 years of her life in Europe and the West Indies with her Mother Mabel and Father John Huddleston along with her siblings Mary and John, because her father was in the U.S. Foreign Service. Growing up during World War II and afterwards, were very active, fun, and trying times. Spirituality again was at the core of her new family, especially after she met Airforce Lieutenant Richard B. (Dick) Rogers. After they settled down in Winter Park where she attended St. Margaret Mary they moved to Maitland and was one of the first Parishioners to attend St. Mary Magdalen (SMM) in 1959, which was still the remains of a concrete night club. Nell's oldest son Mike attended SMM in 1961, and then followed by her other four sons. Nell was on the SMM School Board, Welcoming Committee, Community

First, St. Anthony Circle, Cursillo, Marriage Encounter, Eucharistic Ministry, Parrish Retreats, taught CCD as well as attended Bible Studies. Nell did all of this while she was raising her children and teaching at Lake Sybelia Elementary where she substituted long into her retirement. Nell was graceful, understanding, loving, patient, thoughtful, kind, and will remain forever in our hearts.

“ I am sorry to hear of Nell's passing. I had the privilege of working with Nell at Lake Sybelia school. She played a critical role to the success of our school as the permanent substitute. Teachers felt comfortable knowing they could depend on Nell in their absence. They knew she would care,encourage,teach and quietly discipline the students as needed. She shared her smile and positive spirit as she would walk room to room offering whatever assistance she could provide.

Nell was deeply committed to her faith. And the way she lived her life reflected that. Unfortunately, I will not be able to attend the Celebration of her Life;but will be there in heart and spirit. My prayers will be with the family asking God's blessings and comfort for them.

Respectfully and Fondly,Donna J.Smith
