“ Dear Nick,
I was thinking about the Holiday times when you always picked me up from the airport and took me on a brief tour of the different properties that you had sold. Because of this I know more about the Orlando area.
Thank you for sharing your scrap books with me to read about your world travels.
You are surely missed. The world is not the same without you.
You will be forever in my hearts.
Rest In Peace !
Love,
Peaches

“ Nick was the most empathetic, compassionate man I have ever known. I met him in 1989 when he worked in real estate in Orlando when I was a widowed mother with a 3 year old daughter to rent a property. Anytime anything went wrong with the property you could count on him. I rented for 12 years and purchased the property in 2002 and am still there. Thanks to Nick, I even received back my deposit. My daughter thought he was St Nick or Santa Claus. Stephanie, you are a wonderful wife, love of his life. We all will deeply miss Nick.
