“ I remember when we used to play tag every day during recess in elementary school at ACA. you were the first boy to ever tell me you had a crush on me! and when a boy had a crush on you, you ran even harder during tag! i miss those days. we didn't even know how simple they were. we always sat next to each other in class or were line buddies because of our last names and i remember we would always get nervous when we had to hold hands, ha! I always found an inner sense of comfort when i was around you... you were the kind of person that no matter what, you accept people for what they truly are. and some people just say those things, but not with you, that kindness you had was deeper than you even realized. Growing up would not have been the same without you Noel. Even if we weren't the best of friends... i think some things go unsaid. I remember your laugh, the way you walk and the little jokes you would make just to get a little crack of a smile out of me. Nothing went unnoticed. We all miss you. I think about you a lot since you've left. The world feels a little heavier without you here. I know ill see you again one day... Your forever friend, Katie Hochfelder <3

“ From the heartbroken Ryan family to the entire Gubatan family, we have all of you in our deepest and most heartfelt thoughts and prayers, with no words to express our sorrow for you and for everyone at this time in your lives. Nothing, however, can or will ever take away our beautiful memories of Noel and Katie and Noel, Sr. All of the bake sales and walk-a-thons, Bishop Moore football, and watching Noel grow into an amazing young man. Here are a few photos of these memories. Please feel our prayers and God's hand on your shoulders. We are with you.

“ My heart is heavy. My grief is beyond anything I can put in writing. I remember Noel as a passionate person. So smart, so accomplished. I remember our talks of health and nutrition, his successes at work and food. He was always kind and respectful to me and I loved him like a son. Noel & Kate, I can't tell you how sorry I am for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you both.

Noel, I will miss you.

“ Noel Spencer, my cute little Monchichi!!
You were an adorable little baby/boy who became an awesome, handsome, kind adult!! I remember when you were at Kids Together in pre-K. You had a really cool flight jacket. When Gramma (Ann) picked you up one day, I asked you if I could have it when you got too big for it. You told me, "No, it won't fit you!" I said it would and after a few rounds of "yes, it will - no, it won't!" You let me try it on.
Your face was priceless when I got it all the way on with the sleeves ending at my elbows!! You made me laugh everyday!
I love you and will never forget you!! I love your Mommy and will help take care of her!! Watch over us, Angel!!
XOXOXOXOXOXO

“ Grief is not a sign of weakness, nor a lack of faith. It is the price of love.”

Noel lived a creative and passionate life. He was a kind, helpful and loving young man. His departure has left a void in our family that will never be filled.

Kate and Noel, our hearts break for you. We cannot lighten your agony but we offer open arms as you mourn – open hearts as you ache for what will never be – open minds when you need to talk.

Noel Spencer, your family misses you. We will hold tight to the memories and celebrate your spirit.

*With love,

“ We will certainly miss our grandson, Noel, each and every day. He was so kind and loving towards all his family members from a very early age. He showed great talent drawing pictures which always expressed his wild imagination. He could trim bushes like a pro at a young age and he took great pride in satisfactorily completing any job assigned to him. He had a great work ethic.

And, as all his friends know, he could eat like no one else. He attacked sushi, steak, and healthy foods all equally and with great delight. He loved working out and was always willing to help with heavy lifting. We ask ourselves, who is going to eat our leftovers now?

God bless you, Noel. Our family has a gaping hole that will never again be filled.

My heart aches for ALL the Breig and Gubatan Families, and dear friends who so loved Noel Spencer throughout his 21 years. The picture album and tributes, as well, are so heartwarming. I thank God for the deep faith of both families that will sustain them forevermore in the missing of their loving Noel Spencer. Love and prayers continue from Frances Tomcavage.
