

Nona S Taylor

April 15, 2021

Nona S. Taylor, 89, passed away unexpectedly on April 15, 2021, in Saint Petersburg FL with family at her side.

Her ashes will be interred in Detroit with a portion scattered near Glacier National Park. A memorial service will be held in Michigan at a later date.

Mrs. Taylor was born in Detroit in 1931. She was a 1953 graduate of the College of Wooster (Ohio). She was an early-retirement Ohio elementary school teacher. She was a devoted mother, and loving homemaker for her husband Bill.

Mrs. Taylor was a true friend to all in the community. She was an active member of the Pittman Park United Methodist Church where she sang in the choir, delivered flowers to the homebound, and served the Altar Guild. She moved to a faith-based elder community in Saint Petersburg in 2016 where she continued to volunteer and sing in the choir. She was vibrant and in good health until her death. She will be missed by all.

Mrs. Taylor was preceded in death by her second husband William Taylor, her sister Alice Williston, stepson David Taylor, and grandson David Holte.

She is survived by son Timothy Visser, daughters Anne Visser Holte Ney (Peter), Janet Visser Preston, stepdaughter Holly Taylor Cutting (Jim), and grandsons Joseph (Suzanne) and Thomas Preston.

“ Bryce Bunting posted a condolence Dear Family,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. Your Mom (and Grandmother) was an absolute sweetheart. She took my wife and I under her wing when we moved back to Statesboro and became members of Pittman Park UMC. I have many fond memories of her and I am deeply sorry for your loss; she was a great lady!
With deepest respect and sympathies,
Bryce & Mandy Bunting
Statesboro, GA
