“ When I was just wee little, I stayed with my Grandma and Pap, Aunt Sis & Uncle Ern. She worked and would buy me pretty dresses for church and bring me toys and M&Ms I fed to the dog named Lady.. but I wasn't supposed to but they blinked at it anyhow. So I remember Lady being sick and thought it was from the candy but was told she was getting old. She would take me for rides in her car. We lived in Rowe's Run. One day she parked the running car in park and said Don't move the gearshift. Of course I was curious being under five years old and the car went down the street into the fire hydrant. She didn't get upset and it was Ok. I had a jar of change they made sure I had money for the Goody man. Her hair was so pretty and then I remember she married Uncle Allen. They had a little trailer in Brier Hill they lived in. I could go on and on and she had a beautiful smile. Thru the years she was part of my life, and there's so much to say. I usually saw her at Walmart the last few years. We both used the riding carts. I had no idea she was that age. She still looked beautiful to me. My dad didn't tell me she wasn't home until he was in Mt Macrina. I called her but she sounded tired and her supper was there. It was late Saturday Eve and I told my dad I was going to visit her next day on Sunday, but JESUS had other plans for her. I will see her soon.
