

Norman F. Davis

April 13, 1955 - March 24, 2023

Norman F. Davis, 67, of Uniontown, PA went on to play his great gig in the sky Friday, March 24th , 2023, in Latrobe Hospital. He went peacefully listening to his favorite tunes, with his daughter by his side.

Norman was born on April 13, 1955, in Washington, DC and raised in Falls Church, Virginia. He relocated to Brownsville, Pennsylvania in the 90's to embark on his journey to become a family man and commence his HVAC business.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Ralph and Mary (Fogel) Davis, his sisters, Charlene Morris and Sharon Leypoldt, and his beloved money tree, Herman.

Norm was a rocker dude through and through. He enjoyed shredding on his 12-string guitar named "Esmerelda" while drinking a frosty Budweiser. He was an avid 70s and 80s rock and metal lover, and enjoyed making people laugh. Norm had a sense of humor like no other and he will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

Norman is survived by his daughter, Jessica Davis of Brownsville, His siblings,

Debbie Crawford of GA,
Diana Paranicas of NY, Elona Mckee of CA, his nephew/best friend Tracy Heacock of VA, a host of nieces, nephews, and many old friends.

A special thanks to the staff at Mt. Macrina Manor, who treated him like family during his short stay, he enjoyed sharing many laughs and stories with his "girls". Also, a big thanks to the staff at Select Specialties in Latrobe for being so wonderful to him during his last moments.

Norm's legacy will live on through the music that he adored so much. He was truly one of a kind and will never be forgotten.

"Long you live and high you'll fly, and smiles you'll give, tears you'll cry and all you touch and all you see is all your life will ever be." -Pink Floyd “ Norm, my only brother and my dear friend, I will miss our Saturday talks. Who will I talk to when I'm missing you? I'm so sorry you went so soon, way too soon, but glad you aren't suffering. I love you dearly and look forward to the day that we are reunited together again. Much love, Deb

To my best friend and best Uncle Norm. We had so many great times together over the years. It's difficult imagining life without you in it. I miss talking to you regularly and playing guitar together. Especially these last few years playing and talking on FaceTime. It was a great way for us to be together. I really enjoyed every minute of that. And all the years we spent together. You're like a brother to me. I will always be missing and thinking about you every single day. Cheers brother. I Love you dude

“ A toast to you, Uncle Norm. The coolest uncle I never met (thanks to an unusual twist of fate). I thoroughly enjoyed and deeply value our fun phone conversations over the years. We certainly had more than a few good laughs! But more than that, I'm especially grateful that you and my Mom developed a special friendship later in life - sharing great stories about the family, the past and of course, MUSIC!

I'm imagining your angels have shelved their harps, and instead are strumming finely-tuned Les Pauls and Fenders. May you rest gracefully in peace, and your memory be eternal.

*Love,
Phil*
