“ I worked with Norm for many years in Disability Determinations. He was always kind and congenial. He also was very helpful when I wrote my novel and needed some police advice. He will be missed. I’m so sorry for his loss. May he rest in peace.

“ I knew Norm my entire career with the Sheriffs Office and what a great man he was. Dedicated courageous to a fault, you could not have a better "backup" in times of danger than Norm Booth. Ww worked together in patrol along the infamous South Orange Blossom Trail and again when I was in Criminal Investigations going to have a warrant registered at his office. May the Holy Spirit the Great Comforter embrace his family during this most difficult time.

“ Norm and I worked together at the Orange County Sheriff's Office in the Warrants Section for a number of years. Norm was wonderful friend, and I always knew he had my back, as I had his. My condolences to Lisa and Jared and Jamie.
