

Norman Brian White

August 1, 1939 - March 17, 2015

Norman B. White

Born in 1939 in Greenville, SC, to Napoleon Bonaparte White and Marijane Spivey White as the eldest of four children. Norman grew up in Jacksonville, FL and married Margaret Boney. They were blessed with their son Norman Brian, Jr. and daughter Cynthia Kay "Cindy." He excelled in sales with Data Supplies Corporation and relocated to the Orlando area in the 1980s. There, he met and married Eileen Basquill. They were blessed with three children: Nicholas Bradley "Nick," Katherine Amanda "Katie," and Adam Joseph. Norman loved sports and was active in his children's activities at St. Mary Magdalen Catholic School and Lyman High School. He was a gracious and hardworking man with a genuine smile. He will be dearly missed.

Norman is survived by his wife Eileen Basquill and their children, Nick (Caroline), Katie, and Adam. He is also carried on by son Norman Jr. (Kathy), daughter Cindy, and grandchildren Courtney White and Dalton Gatewood. Norman preceded his brother Kenneth "Terry" White and sister Karen Eby White.

Although Norman bravely fought his battle against prostate cancer, he would appreciate memorial donations to be made to the Thyroid Cancer Survivors' Association at www.thyca.org in honor of Katie's continuing fight against thyroid cancer.
