“ So sorry I am just seeing this now! Mr. Wight was one of the of the sweetest and most decent people to ever walk with us :) My memory(ies) happened nearly every time he substituted for one of my classes. One of Coach Wight's daughters was in my mom's dental assistant class and he always treated me with a bit more respect than I deserved because of that. I was his teacher's pet when he substituted! He was by far the only teacher to give me a pass to the office to pick up supplies rather than a detention slip :) I don't remember which daughter (I think he had two) it was, but please pass along Mrs. Falkner's condolences (and mine) if you get the chance. Thanks, Eric

“ Norm was a great fan and friend to the Casselberry Fire Department. He regularly visited us in our offices and held the men and women of the City's fire-rescue service in high regard. We enjoyed his visits, advice and insights and he will be truly missed by us all. Our condolences to the family and we wish you the comfort and strength of the Lord our God in this time of loss and sorrow.

Mr. Wight is a very, very dear person to my heart. He welcomed me to my new position in Public Works three years ago and always came to visit. When I was out sick and he came to visit, he called in a few days to make sure that I was better. I also became friends with his lovely wife, Ms. Mary.....I would always send her candy by him because he told me that she liked a special kind. My heart is saddened, but I know that he is resting now, because he has let his light shine WELL.....for many years. Rest my friend, in peace.
