“ Mummy Temmy!

It is still hard to believe that you have finished your assignment in this world. I could remember vividly, our first encounter at the "A-Flat" in UCH Ibadan, as a neighbour and as a bossom friend. The children all grew up together as one family. Incidentally, luck brought us together in Ilorin when your husband took up an appointment as a consultant in the radiology dept. and my husband followed suit, by also taking up an appointment in the university of Ilorin (UIITH) about a year after your leaving Ibadan. We remained best of friends and family until you relocated to Kuwait.

Saw you about 4 years ago when you attended your mother-in-laws funeral ceremony. Full of life without any inkling that you would leave so soon.

You are a friend in a million, trustworthy, caring, loving with an infectious smile. There was never a dull moment with you. You have paid your own dues, and I pray that you continue to rest in thrbossom of your lord.

Abiyamo tooto (a great mother indeed). The lord would will look after your loving husband, as well as your children and grandchildren

“ Adieu to an elegant, beautiful lady. Beautiful by looks and godly beauty of the heart. As my college father's wife she was very kind to me in my undergraduate days as a medical student in UI. She always treated me as family although I was no relation. Our comfort is that her short life was blessed and well lived. Futhermore she has gone ahead of us to be with our Lord Jesus where we shall meet again. No more pain No more sorrow. Sunday Ifere (UK)

“ When we lose someone we love, it seems that time stands still. What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon. We begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. To live is Christ and to die is gain. Definitely you have gained, so sleep until the resurrection morning when we shall meet to part no more. We pray the love of God enfolds your family during this period of grief.

“ My condolences to the Ashebu Family,

During this time of great sorrow, may it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. I too know the pain of losing someone dear. Even though our hearts are broken, rest assure that our Grand Creator cares about you personally (1 Peter 5:7) and can help you through this difficult time.

Revelation 21:4 says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Soon God will do away with death forever, there will be no more sorrow, heartache, or pain. I hope this brings you a measure of comfort during this painful time.

All those years at Ilorin, you were more than a friend, you were my sister, you gave me valuable advice on life and relationship issues, you were by my side during difficult times, happy times, how can I forget August 16, 1986; you took me around town to ease the thoughts of labor, the baby was born at night and you were the Godmother. THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR MAKING MY YEARS WITH MY FAMILY AT ILORIN BEARABLE AND FUN. May the Good Lord receive you in His Glory. R.I.P. my friend.*

“My sister”, your death at such a relatively young age is to say the least very devastating. I had the privilege of being one of the doctors who looked after you. You battled courageously and cheerfully until the very end. Your optimistic attitude to the vicissitudes of life was infectious. My wife and your namesake Funmilola joins me in mourning your passing. We thank God for your life. “My sister, sun re o”.

“ First and foremost, thank you for the priceless gift of your approval and the acceptance into your family. I am truly blessed to know you, and am forever grateful for the time I was able to share with you.

And to the rest of my family, I too share your tears, but even more importantly, I share your joy. For if there is one thing that helps to define this amazing woman, it is her unwavering faith in God. During her experiences of such ordeals that would cause many a mortals to question one's faith, Mommy Lola further demonstrated her steadfast conviction in Christ as she aptly proclaimed "God is good".

And though she has left us for the time being, we must remember that she has just commenced the next journey of her life. She is now in peace and free from pain, and in the future we will all be together again. And for this we must rejoice the amazing life of this beloved wife, loving mother, gentle grandmother, and caring teacher.

And as I contemplate all that this loving woman encompasses, all of her experiences and accomplishments, I am filled with happiness as my sorrowful pout transforms into a transcending grin. And although my voice may remain mute, three words immediately come to mind. And as my grin extends into a far-reaching smile, I have to agree with you Mommy, for your wisdom never fails. Yes, God is good.

I would also like to take this opportunity to share a brief poem by Mary Elizabeth Frye:

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am in a thousand winds that blow,
I am the softly falling snow.
I am the gentle showers of rain,
I am the fields of ripening grain.
I am in the morning hush,
I am in the graceful rush*

*Of beautiful birds in circling flight,
I am the starshine of the night.
I am in the flowers that bloom,
I am in a quiet room.
I am in the birds that sing,
I am in each lovely thing.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there. I did not die.*

With love,
