

Pamela Ann Williams

February 25, 1964 - December 14, 2014

Pamela Ann Williams, 50 of Heathrow, Florida passed away on Sunday, December 14, 2014. Mrs. Williams was born February 25, 1964 in Orlando, Florida to Juan and Patricia Perez.

Pamela attended St. Andrew and St. Charles Catholic Schools before graduating from Bishop Moore Catholic High School and then received a bachelor of arts degree from Florida State University. After graduating from FSU, she then worked for Walt Disney World as a costumer and design coordinator for 14 years before retiring to a life of family and freelance clothing design for a variety of companies, developing lines as diverse as children's clothing to men's casual wear to women's beach wear. Pamela was a devoted mother and leaves a legacy of three extraordinary daughters, Alexa, Gabrielle and Hannah. She is also survived by her husband, Charlie, and her mother, Patricia Perez.

“ Pamela was my costuming manager at the Disney Event Group for several years. She was always kind, fair and very professional. Every time I see the Cinderella Coachmen dressed in their exquisite attire I remember Pamela and how she carefully designed those impressive costumes along with so many other costumes at Disney. I have many fond memories of working with Pamela. I hope Charlie and the girls find some comfort in the knowledge that many people admired and loved Pamela along with them. Jane Kehl

“ Pamela will be greatly missed. Having taught all 3 sweet girls of hers and Charlie, I see what beauty and kindness comes through her daughters. Her love for Charlie and her precious girls was evident . I am grateful to have known such a wonderful lady.

“ I want the whole family to know that I am praying you find assurance in God's word, peace in the presence He gives, and comfort in His unwavering love. I know Pamela will be greatly missed as she was such a caring and devoted mother to her girls. When chatting with Pamela at Alexa's graduation I found out that we had gone to Bishop Moore together and she was in my sister, Jeanne's, class. When I told my sister about the connection she went on and on about how beautiful Pamela was both inside and out. She obviously passed that on to Alexa and her sisters. My prayers are with you now and the days to come and hope your memories of her comfort you in your time of need.

“ No one looked more beautiful on a daily basis than Pamela. Always generous and loving, Pamela and Charlie opened their home to my daughter Katherine and treated her like another daughter. I will miss her immensely, but I will always keep her close to my heart. A devoted mother to her three beautiful daughters, she can rest knowing that she raised them well and can be so proud of the young ladies that they are. Rest in peace, lovely lady; we love you.

“ I first met Pamela when Alexa was three years old. Pamela was a quiet lady but spoke her mind when necessary. She was a devoted mother and wife. Pamela was very creative and always willing to help. I pray for Charlie and the girls at this time. May God be with them and bring them peace.

Pamela's essence lives on in all 4 of you.....I will observe this when I am with all of you. Although Pamela's loss is indisputably catastrophic, you must know that she lives on in all of you. She has contributed such beauty and elegance into the world for us all to enjoy. So long Pamela.....you will be missed. Adrian “ Charles, Alexa, Gabrielle and Hannah. Our thoughts are with you through this sad time. Pamela is an original, truly a genuine friend with a creative flare and wonderful sense of humor. I admire her for all she did for everyone with absolute ease. She opened her heart and home to Courtney and I will be forever grateful. We will always be here for you and the girls. Alexa, Gabrielle and Hannah represent the very best of their mother. I will miss Pamela and I'm honored to call her my friend. Peace to all of you.
