

Pat Gasti (Patricia Sagastizabal)

February 7, 1935 - May 16, 2016

Patricia Jane Sagastizabal (known also as 'Pat Gasti') age 81, passed away on May 16, 2016 in Altamonte Springs, Florida. Pat was born in Cambridge, Massachusetts on February 7, 1935 to George A. and Alice B. Harris.

Pat led a successful career in real estate throughout Central Florida for over forty years. She received her real estate license in 1970 and as a broker opened Pat Gasti Properties in 1983.

A woman of great strength and character Pat could often be heard quoting..."If at first you don't succeed, try, try again" as well as "Don't look for difficulty in the opportunity; look for opportunity in the difficulty!"

Pat loved New England and the beach. Over the years she enjoyed life in Orlando, Ponce Inlet and Cape Cod.

She is survived by her husband of 57 years, Aniceto 'Gasti' Sagastizabal, and four of their six children - Eileen, Maureen, Christopher and Daniel. Pat was preceded in death by two sons - Rafael and Aniceto, Jr.

The family welcomes all memorials, but encourages friends to consider gifts of donation in honor of Pat to the American Diabetes Association and Hospice of the Comforter in Altamonte Springs, Florida. These institutions were important to Pat in her final days.

"Rest in peace, Patricia...We know you are doing cartwheels in heaven!"

“ We performed in plays with Christopher from the time he was a pre-teen, and always enjoyed seeing his mom, Pat, at the theatre. We also remember her pride at seeing him perform at Walt Disney World where we all worked in the early years there. She was such a devoted mom, and a lovely woman. Our sincere condolences to the Gasti family.

“ Ms.Pat. I am so grateful we got to talk this past year for the very first time. You were funny and sweet and I enjoyed all the stories and the laughter with you. I appreciate the many things and good things you told me about my children's family. I had so wanted to speak with you again but I understand Jesus wanted you more. Rest in Peace sweet lady. Always E

“ Another angel has her wings. I think I met Mrs. Gasti even before I was born. Chris and I were born 3 weeks apart and our moms we're carrying us at the same time. My love and condolences to Chris and the entire Gasti family. It's never easy for us to say goodbye, but we were lucky to know someone so special! XO

“ She was a grand lady in the best traditions and a patient mentor to my husband and myself. My condolences to Gasti, their children and families. It was an expected loss given her health but still a devastating one to all who knew her.

“ My condolences to Gasti and the rest of the family. My fondest memories will be the pot luck dinners at Watson Realty. No one could give a toast to the group like Pat.

“ So long, Auntie Pat, I'll be missing our long distance calls, the laughs, and the memories we've shared. My time with you and Uncle Gasti, last September, was unforgettable, and I'm glad that I was able to be there with you both. You are missed, and I will remember you always, with love and admiration. Your loving niece, Carolyn

“ There is a new Angel in Heaven and her name is Pat Gasti. She will be welcomed by Alice - her beautiful Mother. And also by her Brother Buzz, - they were like two peas in a pod. And, by her loving sons Aniceto and Rafael. I am so lucky to have known you and been your sister-in-love. We shared many wonderful memories with our families and I will take comfort in remembering these times. It is very hard to realize we won't share any more of our crazy and funny conversations. I know you will be doing your infamous cartwheels and entertaining everyone with your wonderful sense of humor. Rest in Beautiful Peace Pat. With my love, Cathy <3
