

Mrs. Patricia L. Elliott

June 18, 1941 - August 31, 2013

Pat was a devoted mother and grandmother and treasured the time she got to spend with her family. She would talk forever, to anyone that would listen, about the accomplishments of her children and grandchildren. She was tremendously proud of all of them.

Pat loved to cook and entertain and looked forward to the holidays, any holiday, as an excuse to get everyone together to celebrate. Family, friends, in-laws, out-laws – they were all welcome at the holiday table. It made for some interesting table chatter but those gatherings were always fun and never dull.

Pat truly enjoyed crafts of all varieties. She was always making things as gifts. Hand knitted sweaters with names across the chest, purses, aprons and hot pads – she made it all. The sweaters may have been relegated to the back of the drawer but there was no doubt of her love and passion that went in to creating the gift. As we look through the house there remain remnants of projects started and stopped with the hopes of restarting them one day. There is actually a hook rug which has been in some state of incompleteness for more than 40 years as well as many sewing projects that she hoped to restart one day.

Pat's faith was unshakable. She was a very caring person who put everyone ahead of herself and was always first in line when it came time to feed the masses. If you showed up at Pat's house you could rest assured that you would be fed and that laughter would be a huge part of the night.

We will celebrate Pat's life today, September 6, 2013.

In lieu of flowers please consider a donation to the American Cancer Society in Pat's name. Having multiple family members struggle in the fight against cancer, this is a charity which is very meaningful to Pat.

God bless you Pat we will miss you and always hold you in our hearts!

Tribute Wall

“ I want to thank you all for attending this celebration of Pat’s life. I am her daughter in law Kim. I have had the distinct pleasure of spending the last 9 years with Mom. She was my best friend my confidant and the sweetest woman I have ever met. She made me laugh daily, and cry lately.

Mom, Nana, Sister, Friend, (My Love) Pat are all names we call her. To know her was to love this woman. I will miss her laughter and her charm. I will miss the shopping trips that we would take that inevitably would get me in trouble with my husband because “why would any one woman need that much fabric. She and I spent hours sewing dresses purses and any other crazy ideas we came up with. I will miss her spiritual guidance and her loving comfort.

Mom has 3 boys that have the very best parts of her in them. She was so overwhelmingly proud of her family. Rick you have her smarts and her strength. Mark you have her eyes and her humor. Michael you have her heart and her height. All three of you boys have her sarcasm and her wit. The thing I loved about her most is if you were to ask her about her children she would say she had 3 boys from her body and 3 daughters from her heart. She loved Carol Rhonda and I as if we were her own and treated us that way. Her 7 grandchildren provided that twinkle every Nana has in her eyes. I have faith she will radiate her love and strength over us from heaven.

I know that each of you was touched by her in some way and that is why you are here. Remember her always as the crazy bubbly Irish woman who would give you her last morsel even if she was starving herself. Thank you for being apart of her life as I am sure she is smiling above at the happiness it brought to be apart of yours.

I love you Mom and await the day we can be together again.

“ Pat will always be in my heart. I will never be able to see St. Patrick's day on the calendar without smiling and thinking of her cooking corned beef and cabbage, crazy tall velvet hats, and green beer.
