

Patricia Ann Fiala

December 17, 1946 - September 5, 2019

Patricia Ann Fiala, beloved wife, mother, and grandmother, passed away at her home in Casselberry on the morning of September 5th at the age of 72. Patricia was born in Chicago, Illinois on December 17, 1946 to the late Thomas and Lillian Sheehan. Patricia was the youngest of three children. Patricia graduated from Lyden High School and later in life received an AA from Seminole State College, graduating with a 4.0 GPA. Patricia married Josef Fiala in 1970, and they subsequently had two children. Her husband, two children, three grandchildren, and two brothers survive Patricia. Additionally, she leaves behind a number of loving relatives and friends.

Patricia was a loving, brilliant, and dedicated mother. She treasured her children, educated them, and embraced every moment with them. Patricia passed on her love of reading and travelling to each of her three grandchildren, whom she loved immensely. Patricia was proud of her nearly fifty-year marriage and the family that it produced, but in the end, she would have been proudest of her husband's unwavering dedication to her. Patricia leaves behind nothing but beautiful memories.

In lieu of sending flowers, the family asks that donations be made to support Alzheimer's research.

“ My mother met Pat at an Avon party in 1981. I was with my mom at that party and, coincidentally, so was lil Joe. Joe and I became the best of friends from that day on. I spent a lot of my childhood and adolescence with the Fiala's, and they made me feel as one of their one. Pat was like a second mom to me, and to every friend of he kids that came into their home, that's just who she was. I can remember, as teen she would always tell our group before we left to go out, "Be careful!". Well, the one time she didn't say that to us we got into a car accident. It was a very minor car accident, no one was hurt and hardly any damage to the car, but we were all shook up and at that moment we realized she didn't say it that particular evening. Ever since, we all told each other to be careful and it's a practice I continue with my loved ones to this day. We will miss your loving, caring, and fun personality Pat. Heaven has surely gained an angel. Love to you all at this time of celebrating Mom.

Love,
Kevin Curtiss
