“ The moment that you left me, my heart was split in two, one side filled with memories the other side died with you. I often lay awake at night, when the world is asleep, and take a walk down memory lane with tears running down my cheeks. Remembering you is easy, I do it every day, but missing you is a heartache that never goes away. I hold you tightly in my heart and there you will remain, you see, life goes on, but will never be the same.
I Love You! Theresa

“ Wow, Betsy and I were talking about Pat at dinner so I looked him up and here you go. Pat was a mentor in Richmond and when he transferred to Orlando we eventually lost touch. Many memories. RIP my friend.

“ As a fellow Marylander, Patrick and I would reminisce about seafood and the Orioles. He always amazed me how he kept his wry sense of humor and positive outlook, in spite of any personal setbacks. We'll miss you, Patrick.

“ The Cosgroves have been such close friends of our family that they seem like family. A highlight of get togethers was hearing Michael's latest stories - he was a true storyteller who loved to make people laugh even if it meant the joke was on him. We will miss him and his gentle soul.
