“ I am sorry that I was not timely aware of his passing away from this life, otherwise I would most certainly been present for the services to pay him my last respects on this Earth. He was such a delight to see and spend a bit of time at Holy Family - I thought it was so touching that he would be eager to see me at Church ! In fact, I was the one who looked forward to have him there to "visit" with Our Lord and being such a gentle soul upon bumping into me. Well, his visits with the Lord is a more permanent and even more joyous from hereafter... May God the Almighty, shine His countenance upon you, my friend, and fill your days with His Most Holy and Eternal Light !
