“ Henri, I just found out a few days ago about Peggy and just wanted to say how truly sorry I am for your and Clarissa's loss. You and Peg always welcomed me into your home when I was younger and single and didn't know what to do with myself. I have fond memories of those times and I remember Peggy being such a kind and genuine person. Give your daughter a big hug as a I know this must be difficult for both of you. Call or text any time.

“ I have tried writing here many times but havent been able to express my heart break. Peggy was so much more than my sister-in-law, she was a dear friend. I will miss her dearly, I'll miss her texts, chats and life stories. I pray my brother, Enrique and my niece Clarissa find strength and peace knowing Peggy was so strong in her faith and love for our Lord. Our deepest and heart felt condolences to you both and to Peggy's parents, Mr and Mrs Dower. She always spoke about them to me. God bless and hold you near, Carm and Margot DePetris.

“ I still have the prayer journal I kept from the time I was 12 years old and Peggy was on the list of people I was praying for -- God answered those many prayers for my cousin over the years by drawing her to Himself, blessing her with a wonderful husband, and the daughter she'd hoped and prayed for. I like to think of her as an early guest to the heavenly Dower family reunion that I'm sure Mom is organizing -- as we gathered for Gramma Dower's funeral we sang, "May the Circle Be Unbroken" and we look forward with hope and faith to that day we shall all be together again! Henri and Clarissa, may the love of God surround and enfold you with His everlasting arms this day and in the days to come. With love and prayers, Joan (nee Dower) & Jerry Kosmachuk

“Peggy was a sweet, gracious woman who loved her family and her church family. She loved the Lord as much as our human bodies allow. Now she’s with the Lord in all His glory and can love him fully. We miss you Peggy but rejoice that you are forever in His presence.

“My husband and I went to Orange for business; and, on short notice, stopped by to visit my aunt. Henry and Peggy were still living in Southern California at that time. They already had plans to go with my aunt to a church concert, and invited us. This was when I met Peggy and the only time I spent with her. She impressed me with her peaceful, sweet kindness. When I learned she got her daughter, I was overjoyed for her and Henry, of course. Rest, you will not be forgotten, Peggy.

*Praying much for you Henri and Clarissa and Em and Marg in the days ahead as you go on without your precious wife, mom and daughter. You will miss her terribly but how good to know you'll soon meet again, never to part. Precious In the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. Cherishing the long chat I had with her recently. Until we meet again,
Much love,
Auntie Doris and family*
