“ I knew Peter Baumgartner as a personal friend and a co-worker at Convergys. We both worked at AT&T and shared several experiences and discussions on topics from "A" to "Z" with one and another. Peter was a great person, kind, generous, and very passionate about everything he did. The enjoyable times we had together will not be forgotten. I will greatly miss Peter and the stories we shared. It was a great pleasure to know Peter and his wife. My condolences and deepest sympathy to his family for their loss. Ron and Lenni Kapanyko

“ Worked with Pete at the University of Phoenix for many years. He was passionate about his students and a great educator. He will truly be missed. His legend lives on in the minds of many students and his fellow associates. It was a pleasure to know him. PS – I still don't fully understand statistics. But, he was always there patiently trying to get each of through those tough problems.
