“ Cheryl and I were best friends during my senior year of high school. My family life sucked and I was going through some tough times emotionally. Pete and his wife Gail took me into their home and showed me love and compassion and treated me like one of their own. They walked in love not judgment. I dont know where i would be today if it wasn't for Pete. He was like a dad to me. RIP Pete until we see each other again on the other side.
