“ I’m so sorry to hear of this so late. Peter was our property manager for a home we lived in on Bombay Ave in Winter Springs. It was always a pleasure to have him stop by and handle the paperwork each year. Great stories and a gentle spirit. I wish I could have sat with him one more Tim. Greatly enjoyed talking with him.

“ This is from Jayne Lavey Jarvis. Pete was in my high school class of 1958 in Westfield N.J. He was a good friend and stood by me with typical high school girl "stuff". We enjoyed double dates and general fun stuff after school such as basketball at my home bball net. Always fun. I miss knowing he's around here still. Yet I feel great conviction that he's still going on though we can't see him! Warm thoughts.....Jayne

“ *I remember Peter from Westfield High, many many years ago, in the fog of my old age.
Not much to recall except he always seemed like a neat guy, well liked by all in our class.
Rest in Peace from Ed Torgersen Class of WHS 58.*
