

Philip Jerome "Jerry" Foran

November 16, 1945 - September 15, 2017

Philip Jerome "Jerry" Foran, age 71, of Windermere, FL, died suddenly on September 15, 2017. Born in Rockaway Beach, NY, he graduated with a business degree from St. Bonaventure University, NY.

After serving as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Army in Alaska, he worked as a certified public accountant in Chicago. He was then employed by the Chicago Cubs (Director of Ticket Services) and the USFL Chicago Blitz (Ticket Director). This led to his position with the NFL Buffalo Bills as the Director of Marketing & Sales and then as Executive Vice-President for Administration from 1985 to 2007. He was employed there during the Buffalo Bills four Super Bowl attempts.

To be near their son and his family, Jerry and his wife June retired to Windermere, FL, in 2007 where they had ten of their happiest years.

Jerry was an avid sports fan spending many hours watching and analyzing the St. Bonaventure Bonnies, Bishop Moore Hornets, Florida Gators, and the Alabama Crimson Tide. His greatest joy was being with his three grandchildren. He was a loving and proud "Didi". He thoroughly enjoyed being their chauffeur, being the supervisor of their homework, and advising them on the ins-and-outs of stocks and investments.

He was predeceased in death by his parents, Peggy and Phil Foran; his sister, Barbara; and his in-laws, Hazel & Edward Swertel. He is survived by his wife, June (the love of his life); his son, Joe; his daughter-in-law, Kim; his grandchildren, Joey, Drew and Katie; his sisters Patty (John) Rittinger, Peggy Foran and husband Dave Schmidt, Eileen Foran, and Maureen Ryan; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Viewing will begin at 11 a.m. on Saturday, September 23, 2017 at DeGusipe Funeral Home & Crematory, 1400 Matthew Paris Blvd., Ocoee, FL 34761 followed by a memorial service starting at 12 noon.

“ In 1993 in Los Angeles Ralph Wilson turned back 50 tickets the night before the Super Bowl Jerry had to sell them. Jerry Myself(Michael Stachowski) and Carmen Kesner a Captain and later police chief in Hamburg got together in the lobby. Jerry had the tickets and the cash envelope. Carmen stood guard and i interviewed potential buyers. We sold them all but not before the Los Angeles police came to investigate the scalpers Carmen convinced his Los Angeles counterparts that we were the ticket office relocated to the lobby Jerry had about 20,000 in that bank envelope at the time. Is is a great memory. Jerry was a great ticket Mgr a great friend He will be missed. The. Buffalo Bills still use techniques put into place By Jerry and his wife June. We have lost a great man. “ Uncle Jerry was always so nice to me. I still can remember their wedding. They had a band there playing, I swear it was "Chicago" and not a cover band at a fine five star reception hall downtown. When I was a draftsman at 3-M in high school, he always got my buddies at work front row tickets for Cub games. One friend, Charley Grimm use to just exchange the tickets for a nice bottle of scotch. I worked for Jerry selling tickets one summer for the Bleachers and Box seats as Auntie June and my cousin Big-John worked there, too. My cousin Joe (Joey) was always at Cub's park when I was there, too which was awesome! One of my best summers in Chicago as Jerry also got me to sell a 3-day weekend tickets at the Taste of Chicago when mayor Jane Byrne was in office and I got to see Frank Sinatra at Navy Pier's summer concert. I will miss Uncle Jerry's smile and great hugs! When my boys were little, Uncle Jerry, Auntie June (my God-Mother) and a Buffalo Bills executive all visited my family and met Nancy, Jimmy and Jacob! He gave my wife a huge kiss and bear hug and said; "Your family now" and she felt so appreciated and she still remembers how huge of an impact it stayed in her heart. I am so grateful that he took time out of his schedule with the Bill's in San Francisco to see us on a Sunday evening. He also got my family to see the Bill's play when they came to Candle Stick as Joe was there on the sidelines as a Physical Therapist for the Bills and he gave me a hug at the game. Uncle Jerry got my folks from Minnesota a plane trip out to Ca. to see the Bill's play the Cowboys down at the Rose Bowl with Nancy and I. A tough loss to the Cowboys but Uncle Jerry still was so very calm and always happy, never down ever at all! I know God has him now with his folks and giving the Lord hugs! I will always love you, you are forever in our hearts and memories.

“ Dear Foran Family:

We send our deepest condolences. May you find solitude and peace in the days to come. Our prayers are with you during this time.

Ed and I were talking about how much fun Rob and his granddaddy had playing poker with Joey and his grandfather Jerry! A memory that will be cherished.

God Bless,

Carol, Ed, Rob, Maddie, Jimmy, Katie, and Andy Sabis

“ Patty,
I am sincerely sorry for your loss. I know how much closeness there is with my brothers. An unexpected death such as this is very difficult. I know you will always have happy memories of all the good times you shared with your brother. I bet in your family, there will be plenty of those.
Love and sympathy,
Fran
