

Phillip Daniel Harnois

September 10, 1990 - February 15, 2017

Phillip Daniel Harnois was born to Jeffrey and Jenette Harnois, September 10, 1990 in Riverside, California.

Phillip graduated from Olympia High School in 2008. Realizing that football was his favorite sport; he joined a pop warner team in his childhood and went on to play football during his high school years as a center. After high school, Phillip started classes at Valencia College with the idea of moving on to a university to study theater. Philly Teddy Bear was a nickname given to him by his mother and sister Elisabeth because of stature and soft spoken voice. Outside of football, some of his other passions were fishing, playing the drums and guitar, and creating his own dipping sauces for his favorite foods.

Phillip is leaving behind his parents and 4 siblings, Elisabeth, James, Johnathon and Andrew, all who love him dearly and will miss his compassionate and tender heart. Phillip was an organ donor and was able to save 4 people's lives. "You are a Hero!"
