

Phillip Robert Laney

February 18, 1988 - September 2, 2018

Phillip Robert Laney was born on February 18, 1988 in Atlanta, Ga to Phillip and Antoinette Laney. He passed away on September 2, 2018 in Orlando, Florida.

Phillip enjoyed cooking, making music, spending time with his family and friends, and just having a good time. He was the life of the party and made connections wherever he went. With his infectious smile, goofy personality, and big heart Phillip brought joy to the people around him. He had a passion to help others even in the toughest time. His memory will remain on earth with his family forever.

Phillip is survived by his grandfather and grandmother, his parents, three sisters, three daughters, two nephews and niece, and a host of uncles, aunts, and cousins.

“So when tomorrow starts without me don’t think we’re far apart, for every time you think of me I’m right here in your heart”

“ My son was a good boy. He loved sports and actually played for both city wreck and hazlewood east high school; he had plans on attending college to play but suffered a bad pelvic injury. I love him as a father and friend. He will remain in my memory and spirit forever. R.I.P. Maskil ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
