“ brian landry - nephew posted a condolence my deepest condolences to all of you. I always enjoyed my aunt's presence and speaking with her when we all gathered together for our family outings. she was a wonderful and pleasant person to be with. I will always think of her. I bet there is a very good reunion party happening in heaven now with all of her brothers and sisters and mom and dad. I wish I was there to see that. all my love and kind regards brian
