“ I will never feel the unconditional, all accepting, kind and genuine love that came from Rachael ever again. A large piece of my heart will forever be missing without you. I could not have asked for a better ‘aunt’. How lucky am I to have something so special it makes saying goodbye so hard.

“ To my Sissay Grande - You were my first best friend and the best sister anyone could ask for. You helped raise Leslie and I and taught us how to navigate this scary world, how will we find our way without you? Rae was incredibly selfless and put everyone else first even above her own needs. She was by far the strongest person I've ever known and she was the first to offer help when anyone needed it. For many of us Rae was our rock, a form of strength and resilience when we couldn't muster our own. A true Viking Queen! You will always be with us but there won't be a day that passes that you aren't missed. Thank you for the best adventures and the memories that I will cherish and speak of for the rest of my days. I love you so much my sissay!

Love forever -

“ We were in a lake, in some kind of kiddie inner tubes, talking and floating. Her stepmom was yelling for her to get out of the water and she told me calmly that she didn't have to listen to her. That's my very first memory of Rachael. Then we were in gymnastics together, what fun! Then she was about 12, and she punched a bully- my hero. Fast forward to high school, and more fun and we all grew together in those years. How blessed we all were to have had you, and to have all shared that kind of friendship with each other. We shared a lot of rough times, and we shared a lot of laughter and love. All that we shared gave us courage and confidence to face the next hurdle. Thank you for all you were to me and to us. I love you. Rest peacefully.

“ My husband Joe and I met Rachael and Chris this past summer while staying at my sister-in-law Diane’s home. Although we only spent a few hours together I felt like I have known her for the longest time. It was simple to see she was witty, fun, and easy to be with. Over lunch we shared stories, laughed and had a good time. She was very close to Diane and my brother Gerard, just like a daughter to them.

Our sincerest condolences to the family and friends for today and always, and may loving memories bring you peace, comfort, and strength.

“ My beautiful daughter captured my heart from the beginning, and as the years went by I watched her grow into such a strong, smart, compassionate, and funny woman that I admired and loved more and more as the years went by. You were the perfect daughter and oh so diplomatic. One of the many funny things I remember when she was quite young was when I had made her spaghetti and meatballs and she said it was very good. I asked her the next day if she wanted it again and she said it was very good but I never want to have it again. Very diplomatic. Our lives together were never dull and we could always count on one another. I never thought my daughter would go to heaven before me and it has truly left me with a broken heart. I pray you are at peace and in God’s loving hands. Always your loving mother.

Dear Elaine, you have said it all. Rachael was a beautiful and sweet child and adult. She was the best behaved child I ever knew. So agreeable, dignified, and loving. So sad to lose her so soon. I know how much you loved her. All my condolences to you and Chris. Aunt Pat.

“ Rachael has been and will always be one of the best part of my life . Her ability to know when to show up and when I needed her to make me brave I will be forever grateful. She was always brave and fearless. Rachael was my Peter Pan with her unabashed love of childlike fun and antics. She always had a whimsical costume for all celebrations and holidays.

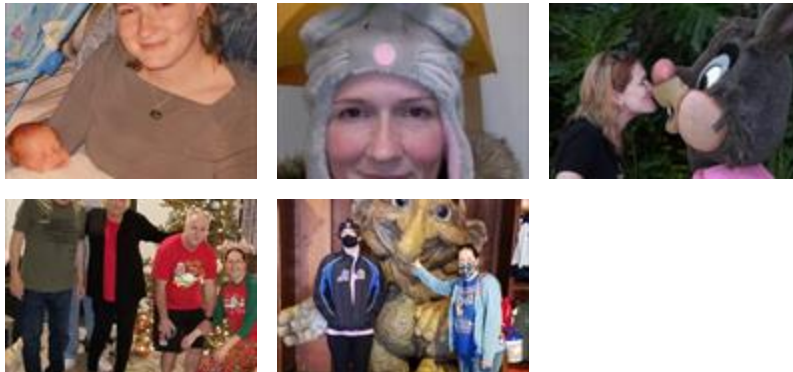

Rachael had a life that was full of many people who loved and I am one of them . A time will come when the pain of losing her will turn to a smile remembering her and the joy she added my life not yet for now just grief . Rest in perfect peace my Rae . Dee
