

Randell Allen Holbrook

May 5, 1972 - December 5, 2019

Randell Allen Holbrook, 47, went to be with Jesus on Thursday December 5, 2019. Born on May 5, 1972 in St. Louis, Missouri to parents Eddie L. Davis and Sharon Turner. He is one of fourteen siblings. A loving father to Chelle, Ravin, Kris, Ash and Jeff. Devoted grandfather to Uriyah. Loving uncle and cousin of many. And adoring husband of Jo.

Randy never met a stranger. He could make a friend at the gas station. His list of friends is longer than the encyclopedia. He was always ready with an ear to listen and advice for whatever situation you may have found yourself in. He loved good music and bad movies. The worse the movie, the more he liked it. A man of many traits. Completely one-of-a-kind. There will never be another like him.

He will be deeply missed.

His family is touched by the outpouring of support they have received in the last few weeks.

They thank you for your continued prayers over them.

Phillippians 4:7 - And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

“ Randy, I am going to miss you more than you could ever know. Your smile, laugh and hugs will never be forgotten. There will always be a missing piece of my heart without you here on Earth, but I know you are rejoicing in heaven with all your loved ones that left before you. When we do meet again, I know you'll be there with open arms. Lane loves you so much and will miss you forever. Rest up, brother

I remember the first time I met Randy all those crazy years ago. Two things were apparently immediately. He loved Jo and animals. Didn't get to spend a lot of time with him through the years but when I did he was always gracious, kind, and loving. My heart breaks for his loved ones and I am grateful for the love and life they built together.
