

Randolph Dave Rambharath

October 11, 1976 - November 26, 2025

Randolph Rambharath also known as Randy

Age 49 • Orlando, Florida

Passed Away: on November, 26, 2025.

Randy was the beloved husband of Sarah Rambharath (Susie).

He was the son of the late Bhagwandass Rambharath (Bhoiwah) and the late Jestina Raghunath (Gully); son-in-law of Kowsilya (Chan) and the late Ishwar Persad-Ramchandra (Charlie); and grandson-in-law of the late Pundit Kassiram Maharaj. He was related to the Rambharaths of Barrackpore and the Raghunaths of Fyzabad.

He was the brother of Linda, Sudesh, Indera, and Lystra, and brother-in-law of Ken, Dave, Reshe, Devika, Seeta, Stephanie and the late Nashir.

Randy was a cherished uncle to Samantha, Nirmala, Sandesh, Lyndon, Cherissee, Salina, Samuel, Jestina, Vashish (Frankie), and Srestha, and grand-uncle to Afiyah and Lynda.

Randy was a quiet soul with a warm and curious heart — but the moment you talked about cars, music, or the latest tech gadget, he was all ears. His passion for innovation and problem-solving was unmatched. As an auto technician, he found true fulfillment in repairing vehicles and anything mechanical. Building computers and taking on home projects brought him joy, and he approached every task with meticulous care and pride.

He especially cherished time with his family, including beloved fall road trips that created lasting memories. A jack-of-all-trades but master of one, Randy was always the first to offer help when something needed fixing. His generosity, humor, and enthusiasm for the things he loved will forever remain in our hearts.

Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal.” – Irish Proverb
