Hi Taylor. I know her biggest highlight in her last few months before she passed was being able to see you & your Mom. I still can't believe how strong she was to be able to go out on the boat! She truly loved you so very much Taylor & I know that YOU know this too. Remember you have her strength in you also! Love you Sweetie.

You are my dearest friend Randy & I will miss you all the rest of my days. At least I had more days with you, than I will have ahead of me without you. I know how blessed I am to have had a wonderful loving friend like you. No one ever came close to having the personality plus like you. Even in my sadness I think of some of our times & can't help but laugh...

I know you are having one heck of a reunion party up there seeing Your Big Paul, your Mom, Levi & all your fur babies. Knowing this is about the only way I can handle losing you. Don't forget to come back for me..

Lots of love forever.

Dear Rachel and Taylor, I send my deepest sympathy. I loved your mom. Randy was such a good friend. We could always pick up where we left off and "never miss a lick" even when it had been a few months between talks! She was real and a very courageous woman with one heck of a personality! I loved how she was so unique and how deeply she cared about those she loved. I know she is now in heaven with Paul and your Nana. I can see them looking down on you with Paul calling you "cat head" and your mom smirking. I hold many great memories of her close in my heart.
