“ I did not know Roqual, but I do know what it is like to lose someone you love in death. I lost my father and a younger brother, so I can say I understand the pain and grief and loss you are feeling. Something that gave me comfort and hope are few scriptures I was shown and I want to share them with you. One is Revelation chapter 21 verse 4. It reads n part " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more-----." No more death, isn't that a wonderful thing? Also in John, chapter 5 verse 28' it says" Do not marvel at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out----." Just think, our loved ones will be resurrected and there will be no more death! These comfort me and I hope comfort you as a family. I am really sorry for your great loss.

Sincerely,
Lynette Bellus

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. It is tragic to lose a loved one so young! I am sure that she has left wonderful memories for you to look back on. As you reflect on your loss, please take comfort in the scripture at 2 Thessalonians 2:16,17. May God strengthen you and bring you comfort during this difficult time.

“ I am sincerely sorry to hear about Raquel. God invites you to throw your anxiety on him because he cares for you. (1peter 5:7) So may you find peace and comfort in him and the wonderful promise of the resurrection. (John 11:24,25) As you reflect on God's word, may your fond memories of Raquel bring you joy during this very difficult time .
