

Richard T. Davis Jr.

July 29, 1970 - September 11, 2015

July 29, 1970 – September 11, 2015

John 6:47 says: “verily, verily I say to you, he who believes in me has everlasting life”.

At the age of 45, Richard Davis leaves behind his Mother, Sara Branch; Fiancée, Dorothy Abrante; Daughters Naudia and Cheyanne Davis; Granddaughter, Ariella; Sister Ashley Davis; Brother, Lance Davis; Sister in-law Lucia, and Nephew Lamont.

Richard was born in Brooklyn N.Y and will rest at the Florida National Cemetery, Bushnell, FL on September 28, 2015 at 11:30 am.

His career started in the ARMY, but the music and magazine industry lead his passions and fueled the energy known as “Qua-Digga”. Richard’s positive go lucky free personality will live on through the many friendships and bonds established over the years. His journey was to live life to the fullest and those who knew him would say he did.

Words will never adequately express our love, respect and gratitude for all those that have extended prayers, encouragement and support.

Sincerely Team Davis

“ I wish I was not even on this page. I just remember connecting back with the family. Seeing your dad and him telling me this is little Ricky. You gave me the biggest hug. I remember dad asking me to sing in the choir and you were in the booth with him while he was yelling at us on the pulpit lol. Of course you know me. I gave him a mouth full and he calmed down. Lol. We use to go out and eat after church. But most of all I remember the love you shared with me like a true son. I wish I would have had more days, weeks, months, years to spend with you and your wonderful family. You will always be little Ricky to me, that cute little young man running up and down the aisle while his beautiful mom followed after him. This is not goodbye it's see you later one day I will see your face again. Love you always young man.

“ There's so many memories. He was a loving person always smiled no matter what. He brought out the best in people in fact he's the reason why I write today. Every blog every poem I hear him telling me that I'm a good writer. He's the only person through out my life that saw that not even me. That was one his talents, seeing beyond what others cannot. R.I.P king Qua Digga Davis you will never be forgotten.

“ Richard Im sorry it took me so long to write a memory....but when you left you took a part of me....my heart is broken....I miss you and love you , I remember you coming to me when you was only 6 years of age saying mom I have a crush on my Sunday school teacher, I knew then I was in for trouble!! I remember going to your ball games and cheering for your team. I remember you graduating from high school and we were choosing colleges when I found out he had enlisted in the Army.....I can go on and on,but I will stop here
Richard I love and miss you love mom

“ Quad was very inspirational in much of my writing upon my introduction to hip hop journalism. He went from interviewing my client "Da Sick one to inviting me to come on board and be a writer myself . We worked together for Big Life magazine. When Big Pun died Quad, called me and told me he was asked to cover that story by his peers , but suggested that it should be me to write it. I remember letting him read it before submitting it to the editor and he got teary eyed and then started laughing as he said to me with a straight face "your the only one who could get away with calling Pun, a gentle giant." I will miss seeing him always smiling and laughing whenever we bumped to each other 🙏 ?? 🙏 ?? 🙏 ?? 🙏 ??

“ My deepest sympathies to the living family. Your memories are what will give you Peace!! Thankful that we share his life. In the good days and bad. Talk a lot about his present and laugh about the good times. I will help you get to the next day. Then the comforter will take along when your natural body can, not pbe strong in the Lord for there you will find your strength. Cuz Robin love always family!!!
