

Mr. Richard Alan Langel

June 6, 1955 - June 22, 2013

Richard Alan Langel June 6, 1955- June 22, 2013

Rick was born and raised in Ft. Pierce Florida. He learned how to grow things from his Grandpa, fix things from his Dad, and to race cars from his brothers Eddie and Bernie. He learned how to dance from his sisters Sherri and Linda and how to protect his younger brothers David, Paul and Scotty. He had many jobs over his lifetime, some of which included flying a crop duster plane, working as a butcher, Cable line man, and pool builder. Rick loved to be outdoors. He loved to fish and go to the beach. He liked to tinker around with just about anything that needed fixing. He almost always fixed what was broken. Rick loved watching Nascar and cooking, especially boiled peanuts. One of his passions was collecting old coins. He loved his family and his grandchildren and had many friends. He never met a stranger and was always willing to help out a neighbor or friend. He did so much for his kids over the years like helping them fix their cars or houses or just loaning them a few bucks. They could always count on their dad. He enjoyed giving people gifts for birthdays and holidays especially his grandchildren, Curtis, Jordan and Micah. He really enjoyed watching his grandson Curtis play baseball, football and basketball. He liked playing ball with Jordan and giving Micah lots of hugs and kisses. They will miss their PopPop very much! Everyone who knew Rick will always remember his kind, generous soul and sense of humor. Hopefully when we think of him it will be a happy memory that lives on in us! Rick is survived by Judith A. Langel (wife) Megan Argroves(Curtis), Kurt Langel and Lauren Langel (children) Curtis Argroves II, Jordan Brown and Micah Jones (grandchildren) Edward, Paul and Scott Langel (brothers) Linda Langel (sister) MaryAnn Reeves (aunt) and many nieces and nephews.

“ Judy , God Bless you . I had no idea Rick was gone . I called to check on Jim this eve. and he told me.
He was a special guy . My Parents were very fond of him . I think the entire neighborhood was.
His passing is a loss for folks even outside family.
