“ My brother Dick as a child was a lot like Mark Twain’s Tom Sawyer, in looks as well as attitude. I so enjoyed his sense of humor and ability to tell an interesting story about otherwise overlooked people or events. He had many friends, some since 2nd grade. I will miss his weekly phone calls where we discussed our childhood and the family we grew up with. Doris

“ The words that come to mind when I think of my Uncle Dick....silly, understanding, loving, faithful to his God and a man that loved his family and wife dearly. He will be missed very much. I loved him.
