“ So sad to hear that Richard passed away. I worked with him and first met him when I was a manager at Friedman's Jewelers in the Altamonte Mall. And also spent time with him outside drinking beer and watching sports. A true gentleman and the utmost professional so well respected within the community. Rest in peace Richard I'll miss you buddy.

“ Sorry to hear of his passing .
I knew Richard since grade School at St. Margaret Mary's . As a adult I did some business with Richard & he was very professional and a sharp dresser. Always friendly and was a good friend. I will miss him always. Rest in Peace Richard .

“ Richard and my sister Donna knew each other my entire adult life and then some. Periodically he would reappear, give me a chuckle or a hand and poof, gone for awhile again. He had a wry wit and big heart. It had been about a year or so since he last materialised in my life, gave from his heart, had a meal and a drink and popped back out. I am sad for us all that he made his leap, but hope he knows he touched many on his journey.

“ Although life's journey has ended for Richard, what a great journey he has had; but more so, what a privilege and blessing it is to have known him and I have walked by his side. Gone too soon and too suddenly, he is now reaping his Heavenly reward. The world has lost a kind, caring, giving, sweet, gentle, and loving man. He will be so very missed by all who loved and cared for him. My heart aches for his presence. He will live in my heart forever. I love and miss him dearly. ❤️

“ When Lauren was in my first grade class, Richard was one of my favorite dads. He was always funny and made me laugh. I looked forward to him picking Lauren up, or coming in for a conference, because I knew it would be a good time. Rest In Peace, Richard,; this retired old teacher will always think of you fondly.
