

Robert E Catterton

March 26, 2015

Catterton, Sr., Robert E. 73 passed away March 26, 2015. Born in Prince George's County in Southern Maryland, he was the son of the late Crumpton Earle Catterton, and the late Catherine McLaughlin.

Mr. Catterton, also known as Bob or Bobby C, relocated to Pinellas County Florida in 1969. He was a talented musician and performed around the Tampa Bay area from 1969 right up until his passing. In addition to being a performer, he would also give lessons to others wanting to learn how to play an instrument or improve their skills at his music store (Mr. C's Music) which was located in Kenneth City.

Bob also was a craftsman and could build just about anything with his hands. After building homes and cabinets for many years, he ran a business building custom wood shutters and other specialty woodworking items. He just had a way of visualizing things he wanted to build and then turning them into finished pieces.

He enjoyed family time and is survived by his loving wife, Dayle A. Catterton; loving father of Robert E. Catterton, Jr., Richard M. Catterton and Raymond A. Catterton; Jamie L. Wassermann; also survived by his sister: Nancy Sexton; brother: Kenneth A. Catterton; 10 grandchildren: Jacob, Rebecca, Jordan, Samantha, Robert III, Jessica, Joshua, Mitchell, Stephen and Stephanie. He was preceded in death by his son: Russell B. Catterton.
