“ It has been many years since I have seen Robert, our dads were the best of friends. I remember his sense of humor, his wise cracks, and his distinct smile. life happens and we take different directions. Over the years i remained in contact with your dad who always spoke of you and your brother Michael. you were both loved probably more than you know. you are now reunited with your dad, I know he was there to greet you with open arms and the same smile that you all share. A new beginning as you are reunited in paradise. Rest easy and peacefully Robert. To your family, sending you prayers for strength during this difficult time. Noting loved is ever lost.. Robert will live in your hearts, your conversations and your memories.
