“ I will always remember Bob with fondness... he was so kind and made me feel right at home in his own home. My husband and I actually got married on Bob's front porch. The historic home made a beautiful backdrop for our ceremony and he and Gayle were so generous, helping make our day special. I didnt know him that well, but I do know he was a loving, compassionate man who cared about others and had such a calm wonderful presence. My sympathies to Gayle and the rest of his family. Prayers for peace for you as you go through this difficult time.
