“ Well, let me be the 1st to leave a memory of Bobby, I'm so honored to do so!

I met Bobby working at TMC through the Sono Bello Program. How could I not notice him, he was as tall as the Jolly Green Giant!! Still, I didn't talk to him for several months after that...you see, Bobby gave off a vibe of intimidation and I was hesit

I can honestly say now, I'm so Blessed to have gotten the chance to cross paths with him and to finally sit down and chat w/ him during lunch that day Lol

To my surprise, he was kind, thoughtful, and really took the time to listen to what I was saying...no matter what it was. He was an all around great guy & friend!

This past Christmas was an EXTREMELY trying time for my family, I had no job, and no solid plan for how I would get my 2 daughters gifts.

It was less than 24 hours after I confided in him that he called me up and said he had a plan, and I needed to come by ASAP! I cried all the way there lol Between him, his girlfriend, and his Mom (Ms.Sharon) they had 2 black trash bags full of things for my girls for Christmas! Every time I said it was Ms.Sharon's idea, they corrected me and said it was Bobby's..I think they wanted him to feel the credit and how good it felt to get recognized for doing it! That was just the kind of person he was, and the type of person I will forever remember in my heart.

He had another friend, Michelle, and he always used to say, she and I were his 2 closest genuine friends..it always touched my heart when he said that bc I was j being me, but that's meant a lot to him to have a "true" friend.

He was my true friend as well, and there will always be a Bobby sized hole in my heart where our continued friendship should have been. 💔 You will forever be missed you big teddy bear, harmless to the core, fly high and watch over my Gracie-girl who loved Uncle BoBo so very much. 🙏🙏 God Bless you Jenkins Family 💖🙏💔

Well Bobby I guess you are up there with your Dad and My mom Aunt Shirley try to keep those 2 out of trouble! Good luck with that cousin. My fondest memories of you were when you were little since I was so much older, you were a little daredevil trying to dive off the kitchen table and you were impossible to keep out of the pots and pans cabinet. You were a gentle giant for sure. RIP cuz until we see each other again.
