“Bob was a member of the City of Altamonte Springs Planning Board, and he proudly served our community from 2015 to 2020. Bob cared about Altamonte Springs, he cared about playing a role in ensuring our future remained very positive for the people who lived here, and he was a true gentleman to our staff and those who appeared before him and his fellow Planning Board members.

On behalf of Mayor and the City Commission, past and current Planning Board members, and the staff at the City of Altamonte Springs, we extend our condolences to Elaine, and their children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Please know that we are grateful for Bob. He made his City a better place and we will miss him very much.

With sympathy,

*Frank Martz
City Manager*
