“ Janis - friend posted a condolence Bob was a wonderful, kind, caring person. He would do anything for a friend and was always there when someone needed help. He and my dad, Sonny Jones were the best of pals. Add in the third Blair and you had the three musketeers. When they each were in need, Bob was there. Without question he would help. He always stayed in contact with me after my dad passed to make sure I was ok. We would spend hours talking about the past, present and future. I can just imagine the party that they are all having now that they are all back together. I am sure a powerful group of Angles came to escort Bob home. All the earthly pain, suffering left behind and lessons learned, Bob moves into eternity. I love you Bob and will miss you greatly. Janis
