“ I knew him as Robbie. My brother Mitch and I spent most days outside with Robbie on Lake Pickett. We jumped off our floating dock, and did swan jumps off his tree swing. I have such fond memories of our childhood days together. I was looking up Robbie to ask about his mom and found this obituary. I can't express my sadness over the loss of this bright light of a human. After reading the tributes here. I know he has left a trail of sunshine. Please accept my regards for a beautiful soul, he made so many lives better.

“ Rob... It's still so hard to believe. We shared such laughter, tears, and overall great moments with your family and friends. As Amanda says, you truly were the life of the party and so devoted to your friends and family. I'll never forget your laughter and your classic "hey buddy" on the end of the other end of the phone. You wore your heart on your sleeve and I really admired that trait. I couldn't ask for a finer brother in law. You touched so many lives, and it's an honor and a privilege to call you my brother-in-law, though it was more like a true brother. My heartfelt condolences to June, Amanda, Carrie, and family members. Love u brother....
