Robert Durrell Pringle, born on August 29, 1943, in Hemlock, MI was sent to his eternal home on July 1, 2025, after a brief battle with bladder cancer in Altamonte Springs, FL.

Bob graduated from Ferris State University before proudly serving in the United States Air Force at Loring AFB in Limestone, Maine. He relocated his family to Dunedin, FL in 1973 and remained a Floridian until his death.

Bob was preceded in death by his parents, Durrell and Geraldine (Earle) Pringle; sisters Sherry Madden, Diane Potts, and Betty Golombisky; and his partner of 35 years, Olivia Martinez.

He is survived by his two children, Spencer Pringle (wife Selene) and Merideth Berrios (husband Melvin); grandchildren Maddox and Cade Pringle, Hailey and Kayla Berrios; brothers Bill (Nancy) Pringle and Rick (Marcie) Pringle. “ Grandpa Bob as we all called him because of Maddox and Cade. Always was there to put a smile on everyone else’s face and his own. I always look forward to seeing him , when he was gonna be there for one of the boys events, and to celebrate with him and the family. It will be a great loss to me and the family to not see his smiling face every time we go up there. Knowing he’s looking down on us, laughing and smiling and dancing in heaven also makes me smile. My prayers for all the family. Love you all ☐ Patti or Aunt Patti
