Life is funny Robin. Our so called dad wants to leave you a half mil. A little to late. All I ever wanted was a normal life. If I had to do it over I would have taken your children when you asked me to. I'm so sorry little sister. May you finally rest in peace

A shitty hand is being nice. I hope my father is dead. What an evil, abusive man. Mom died in 2016 from an aneurysm after battling bladder and breast cancer. She was gravely sick for years. I think the combination of her and Dad was the perfect storm for their four children to be fucked up for life. Neither one had the heart to actually love others, but to inflict pain on others, especially to their innocent children, and I know that for a fact. I was one of them.

Robin, I found out today that you died 5 years ago. You were my sister, and I didn't even know you. You did nothing but try to get away from your pain. I feel sick. Just sick.

Laura, get over the Dad has money and wants you to have it scheme. There is no money. He is an abusive liar. Abusers are very convincing, and if he is still alive, he needs to be convicted of physical, emotional, and sexual abuse so he can be appropriately imprisoned.

That would be sweet justice for Robin, because she really never had a chance to live peacefully, just like the rest of us.
